

Datuk DR. Maheswaran Sithampalam is the director and lead consultant of Concept Fertility Centre, Damai Service Hospital Kuala Lumpur Malaysia since 1999.

He completed his post graduate school in Cardiff, UK with reproductive medicine as his special interest. On attaining his membership with the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists (MRCOG), he continued his training in assisted reproduction at King Edward Hospital in Perth Australia. In 2012 he was elected to the fellow of the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists.

He is currently the President of the Malaysian Society for Assisted Reproductive Technology (MSART) and the country Representative of ASPIRE. He is also the acting Chairman of the Disciplinary Board of the Malaysian Medical Council and Chairman of the Preliminary Investigation Committee.

